

Target Audience:

Beginner level course—New graduates (BSW or MSW) or individuals who have recently changed fields of practice.

Intermediate level course—Individuals with a year or more experience in the relevant field of practice.

Advanced level course—Individuals with several years of experience in related work. Level of education may be relevant in cases such as advance clinical skills training.